

Gillian Carlisle BHSII, Chief Executive, Thoroughbred Retraining Centre

Gillian is the Chief Executive of the Thoroughbred Retraining Centre (BTRC), a charity dedicated to improving and promoting the welfare of retired racehorses. Gillian, who holds the British Horse Society Intermediate Instructors Certificate was previously Equine Operations Manager for the Hong Kong Jockey Club, managing the Beas River Equestrian Complex, further, she was responsible for managing the retired racehorse population that was not exported by their race owners. Gillian has previously trained with Irish Olympic Event Rider, Eric Smiley FBHS and has a real passion for not only her work, but the success of those wanting to pave a successful career path in the equine industry.

Click here to find out more about The British Thoroughbred Retraining Centre.

The British

Thoroughbred Retraining Centre