

Ruth Kennerley Human and Equine Sports Therapy

Ruth is a successful Human and Equine Sports Therapist who graduated from the University of the West of England with a First Class BSc (Hons) degree in Equestrian Sports Science and holds a Level 4 Sports Massage Diploma at The University of Nottingham. Ruth is a member of the Association of Soft Tissue Therapists and an experienced athlete currently competing at Advanced Level Dressage, with National success. In addition, Ruth was selected as a member of the prestigious Equine Elite Academy whilst studying at Hartpury and brings a wealth of experience to the programme.

Click here to view Ruth's Facebook page.

